MARCH IS BRAIN INJURY AWARENESS MONTH

TEST YOUR TRAUMATIC BRAIN INJURY (TBI) IQ

1. The most common mechanism of injury resulting in TBI sustained in Iraq and Afghanistan is:
   a) Blast   b) Motor vehicle accident   c) Gunfire   d) Fall

2. True/False: Loss of consciousness (LOC) is not required to make a TBI diagnosis.

3. Which of the following differentiates a mild TBI/concussion from a more severe injury?
   a) Duration of alteration of consciousness   b) Duration of LOC   c) Imaging   d) All

4. True/False: The frontal lobe, responsible for executive functioning, is the most commonly injured region of the brain.

5. True/False: To identify a possible cause of complex symptoms (e.g., headache, dizziness, sleep disturbances), intake history should include prior military service and exposure to TBI-associated mechanisms of injury.

Transforming the Lives of Service Members with TBI.
Clinical Care. Education. Research. That’s DVBIC.

DVBIC.ORG | BRAINLINEMILITARY.ORG | INFO@DVBC.ORG